Learning Outcome:

- From the experiment, I learnt to implement simple CSS tags.

- I learnt about some common CSS attributes that can be used for most HTML tags like color, background-color, margin, padding etc.

- I learnt how to do inline, internal and external CSS.

- I learnt about selector based psuedo-class CSS tags like :hover, :nth-child, :active, :visited and their usage for anchor and table elements.

- I was able to implement CSS for navigation bar, footer, tables and forms.

- I learnt how to style different HTML elements.

- I learnt to implement a basic text animation.

- I learnt and implemented various semantic tags of HTML5.

- I learnt about implementing CSS by ID, tag type, class name and inheritance properties of CSS.

- I learnt about different CSS selectors.

- I learnt how to use icons for styling the bullet for unordered lists.

- I learnt to import and use custom Google Fonts for styling the webpage.

- I learnt and implemented basic box-modeling concepts, and understood about outlines, borders & paddings in CSS.
